

Greetings Friends!

Today is a day for dreaming . . .

'Field of Dreams' (detail) by Holly Van Hart
Click here to see full painting

In 'Field of Dreams', the daisies represent our dreams, some bigger than others, some growing and developing, others on the decline, and all of them dancing around through the turbulence and beauty that we call life.

Here's wishing that your biggest, boldest dreams come true!

All the best,

Holly

Click here to see full 'Field of Dreams' painting

Art exhibit in San Francisco

Triton Museum of Art Solo Exhibit

Hot tip of the day: 'He loves me, he loves me not, . . . " Did you ever say this to yourself over and over again while picking off the petals a daisy? Here's a new version that's way more fun, 'He loves me, he loves me lots, . . . " :-)

Copyright © 2014 Holly Van Hart Art Studio & Gallery, All rights reserved.

unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

