

Friends,

Ever feel in the mood for something new & different?

'Possibilities Unfurling', Oil painting by Holly Van Hart

That's how I felt while painting 'Possibilities Unfurling', first in a new series of abstract ribbon-esque paintings.

These ribbon-esques carry forward many of the symbols and meanings used in my recent work. They represent colorful nests woven together with ribbons and circles.

These paintings highlight the promise of our own creativity and capabilities, to be nurtured and explored and stretched to their fullest potential.

"Van Hart's paintings . . . present their enigmatic subjects with both beauty and conviction, memorably."
– DeWitt Cheng, Art writer for Art Ltd, Artillery, ARTnews, and Visual Art Source

You're invited! Open until February 14 - Triton Museum of Art Solo Exhibition. Email me if you'd like to visit the exhibit together.

Look closely and you'll see new textures embedded in the paint - created with silica sand and silicon wafers. Why were these materials chosen? See/read more here.

Thanks for your interest in the 'art of the possible' :-)

All the best!

Holly
