

Fellow art lover,,

Have you ever left a safe harbor & sailed away without knowing what's on the other side?

'Voyage to the Possible', Oil painting by Holly Van Hart

How did that feel? 'Voyage to the Possible' is meant to capture the sense of wonder and excitement (and fear) associated with the launch.

The 'voyage' moments that stand out the most in my life are -

- * having children (I really had no idea what was in store),
- * starting my art career (lots of lessons learned in that leap),
- * some of my new jobs while in high tech, and
- * heading out on a 6-month around the world trip (without hotel or other reservations, we simply showed up in 15+ South Pacific and Asian countries, with backpacks, and winged it).

I'm curious . . . what were the top 'voyage' moments in your life? Would love to hear back from you on this.

Wishing you many fantastic voyages ahead!
