

Friends often ask "Are there any paintings you would not sell?" Great question.

Yes, there are 4 of them (as featured in the latest edition of the Santa Clara Weekly) -

Paintings done by artist Holly Van Hart of her family. Top: Her husband as a child, self portrait. Bottom: Her two sons.

Sitting in my studio, reporter Melissa McKenzie asked lots of questions about art & life & my upcoming museum exhibit. Click here to see her feature article in the newspaper's Art & Entertainment section.

On a related note, my solo exhibit at the Triton Museum of Art opens next month. If you live in the San Francisco Bay Area, hope to see you there!!

Til then, enjoy the lovely autumn season and all the amazing changes it brings!
